Reliance Industries Strikes Deal With Rosneft For Rouble Payments :-

India's Reliance Industries, which operates the world's largest refining complex, has struck a one-year agreement with Russia's Rosneft to buy at least 3 million barrels of oil per month in roubles. The shift to rouble payments follows Russian President Vladimir Putin's call for Moscow and its trading partners to find alternatives to the Western financial system to facilitate trade in the face of US and European restrictions. A term deal with Rosneft also helps privately run Reliance to secure oil at discounted rates at a time when the OPEC+ group of oil producers is expected to extend voluntary supply cuts beyond June.
