DAILY UPDATE 1 : IMPORTANT DAY

World Day Against Child Labour : 12 June :-

June 12 marks World Day Against Child Labour. Its mission is to ignite the growing global movement against child labour. On June 12, 2002, the International Labour Organization (ILO) recognized the first World Day Against Child Labour at its Geneva headquarters, which had been established the day before. World Day Against Child Labour was created to promote and amplify the global call to end child labour. Since 1987, the Indian central government has implemented a National Policy on Child Employment, which focuses on the rehabilitation of children and adolescents who have been exposed to employment. This year the theme is "Let's act on our commitments: End Child Labour!".
