Coal India Exploring Lithium Assets In Argentina With U.S. Firm: Report :-

An Indian source with firsthand information revealed that Coal India Ltd, a state-run corporation, is exploring lithium blocks in Argentina alongside a US company to ensure supply of battery material. The initiatives are part of India's participation in the United States-led Minerals Security Partnership (MSP), which New Delhi joined last year to assure adequate mineral supplies to satisfy zero-carbon targets. India has been looking into ways to ensure supplies of lithium, a vital raw ingredient required to produce electric vehicle batteries. Prime Minister Narendra Modi's government last year listed 30 minerals, including lithium, nickel, titanium, vanadium and tungsten, as critical to drive the adoption of clean energy.
